EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

DAVID ARTHUR DEPONTE,

Plaintiff,

v.

STOHL, STERN, J. SAUCEDO, K.
SUDANO, M. DOBE, GUNSAGA,

Defendants.

Case No. 1:24-cv-00695-KES-HBK

ORDER DISREGARDING PLAINTIFF'S MOTION AND NOTING NOTICE OF CHANGE OF ADDRESS

(Doc. No. 48)

On September 13, 2024, Plaintiff filed a pleading titled "Motion to Put Retaliation on File." (Doc. No. 48, "Motion"). The Motion comprises a single page. (Id. at 1). Plaintiff states he was moved from G-Yard, lost his job and college courses and is not able to access the law library. (Id. at 1). Plaintiff speculates these actions are being done for retaliatory purposes because "Captain Stohl made an appearance." (Id.). Plaintiff wishes to make "the courts aware of these retaliatory actions." (Id.). Plaintiff accompanied his Motion with a Notice of Change of Address addressed to the Clerk. ((Id. at 2).

Although labeled a "Motion," the pleading does not seek any relief. (Id.). Further, the Court notes that no defendant has yet been served in this action and, contrary to Plaintiff's understanding, Captain Stohl has not made an appearance in this action. (See generally docket). The Court further notes that the Clerk has updated Plaintiff's address of record based upon his Notice of Change of Address. (Id.).

1 Accordingly, it is ORDERED:

2 The Court DISREGARDS Plaintiff's "Motion to Put Retaliation on File" (Doc. No. 48).
